Impressions and Outlook: International Training Activities 2018

Dear readers,

With pride we look back at our training initiatives of the past seven months: Clearing Rights for Film and TV, the first modules of the Trans Atlantic Partners as well as European TV Drama Lab and the Serial Drama Producers Meeting Berlin Tel-Aviv welcomed 71 participants, 32 speakers and 49 industry guests from 29 countries! I would like to thank everyone involved and look forward to further insightful workshops and events with inspiring experts, curious participants and interesting discussions in 2018!

Please find some impressions from this year's events and an outlook on the upcoming ones below.

My team and I wish you a wonderful summer!

Dina Rubanovič
Head of International Training

SOME IMPRESSIONS

Clearing Rights for Film and TV

April 18-22, 2018 | Mallorca

During the workshop the participants listened to inspiring keynotes from Stephen J. Sass (HBO), Sylvia Hess (Red Bull Media House), Gillian M. Lusins (NBCUniversal International) and other top industry experts from Europe and the US!

Trans Atlantic Partners 2018

June 16-21, 2018 | Berlin

Celebrating 10 successful years in international co-production training, the unique training and networking programme once more brought together 25 experienced independent producers from Europe, USA and Canada as well as India to develop dramatic television and feature film projects for its first Module in Berlin.

We are looking forward to the Halifax Module in Canada (September 10-16, 2018).

European TV Drama Lab 2018 | Module 1

July 3-8, 2018 | Berlin

"There is really probably nothing that prepares you for the job until you do the job."

At this year's European TV Drama Lab showrunner Jon Feldman (DESIGNATED SURVIVOR, SALEM, DIRTY SEXY MONEY) talked about the US creative team, the collaborative process and the role of the showrunner.

Berlin Tel-Aviv Serial Producers Meeting

July 3-4, 2018 | Berlin

Producers from Germany and Israel met at this event, supported by Medienboard. After two days of inspiring discussions they got valuable insights into the country-specific opportunities and challenges. Networking and showcases rounded off the programme.
